The Secretary of State shall designate State Department members and no more than two alternate members for each member. At least three of the Department's members shall be career members of the Senior Foreign Service. All other agency heads shall designate the members and no more than two alternate members for each member from their respective agencies and so inform the Chairperson of the Board in writing. The Secretary of State shall also designate from the membership of the Board a Chairperson who is a career member of the Senior Foreign Service and a Vice Chairperson.
- b. In accordance with the Executive Order, members should have the rank of Assistant Secretary or higher or occupy a position of comparable responsibility. In the case of agencies having more than one member on the Board, the additional member(s) should be a career member of the Senior Foreign Service and, if necessary, can be of lower rank. Alternates should be of the same rank as the member if possible. The alternates for the Senior Foreign Service members should also be career members of the Senior Foreign Service.
- c. It is expected that a 16 Board members(or their alternates) will attend all meetings. However, if a Board member or alternate is unable to attend a meeting, the member or alternate (or the agency head if circumstances so warrant) shall designate, in writing, an ad hoc alternate member for that meeting so as to maintain an appropriately balanced representation and voting. The level of representation and authority of the ad hoc alternate should be reasonably consistent with the criteria employed in the selection of regular alternates.

- d. A copy of the letter of designation of an ad hoc alternate shall be notified to the Chairperson of the Board through the Executive Secretary of the Board (hereinafter "the Executive Secretary") at or before the meeting to which it applies.

(Uniform State/AID/USIA/Commerce/Agriculture)

- a. The Executive Secretary will notify members of the Board when a meeting is scheduled; that notice will include information related to the date, time, place and agenda of the meeting. Normally, a meeting will be held each quarter year at a time and place designated by the Chairperson. Special meetings may be held from time to time as circumstances warrant.
- b. The Board may, at the discretion of its Chairperson, invite non-members of the Board to make verbal or written presentations on matters before the Board.
- c. Meetings may be attended by the following persons only:

 - (3) The Executive Secretary;
 - (4) A conference reporter who will make a verbatim transcript of the meeting's proceedings as appropriate; and
 - (5) Legal Counsel or others, as approved by or invited by the Chairperson. Authorization for others to attend the meeting must be obtained from the Chairperson through the Executive Secretary.
- d. The Chairperson or, in the Chairperson's absence, the Vice Chairperson ("Acting Chairperson"), shall preside at all meetings of the Board. In the absence of both of them, the senior member or alternate attending should preside.

- e. A quorum at a meeting of the Board shall consist of 10 members (or alternates), at least seven of whom must be from the Foreign Affairs Agencies.
- f. A meeting of the Board can be convened only by the Chairperson or Acting Chairperson. The Chairperson will consider requests for meetings by an individual Board member or group of members, but the decision to call or not to call a meeting remains with the Chairperson. If three members of the Board request a meeting on a particular issue, however, the Chairperson will be obliged to schedule a meeting within 30 days of the date of the request, or within 30 days of the date of the third member's request, should the three requests not be submitted simultaneously.
- g. The Board will meet with the Secretary of State annually to discuss matters relating to the Foreign Service and to offer advice as appropriate.

2 FAM 931.3 Agenda and Documentation

(TL:GEN-218; 10-04-1984)

(Uniform State/AID/USIA/Commerce/Agriculture)

- a. A fixed agenda will be established for each meeting by the Chairperson and circulated in advance to each member of the Board, unless, because of unforeseen circumstances, an emergency meeting must be convened on an urgent matter. Members who wish to suggest agenda topics may do so at a Board meeting (for the agenda of a future meeting) or by a letter to the Chairperson, through the Executive Secretary. When possible, a brief period will be included as the last item on each agenda for free discussion of topics of interest or concern to members. The Board will not normally take action on matters introduced during this free discussion period, but may schedule them for full consideration at a later meeting.
- b. A written record will be made of all the Board meetings, unless other-wise determined by the Chairperson. This record will be filed with the Executive Secretary and will be available for review by any Board member or representative. Minutes of each meeting shall be drafted by the Executive Secretary and circulated to the members. Appropriate parties will receive decisions, findings, recommendations, or advice from the Board in writing. Those individuals or agency representatives who are invited to appear before the Board will have access to the written record of that part of the meeting related to their appearance.
- c. Position papers and other related documents which interested parties (if invited to do so by the Chairperson) or members of the Board wish to provide as a basis for discussion at a meeting should be submitted to the Executive Secretary in 20 copies at least 10 days prior to the date of the meeting so that the Executive Secretary may circulate the documents to the members in sufficient time for review. The 10-day rule for distribution of documents may be waived by the Executive Secretary if, in the Executive Secretary's opinion, the situation so demands.

(Uniform State/AID/USIA/Commerce/Agriculture)

- b. As a general rule, proxy voting will not be permitted. If someone participates in the major portion of the discussion and must leave shortly before the actual voting takes place, however, that person, at the Chairperson's discretion, may leave his proxy vote with the Chairperson.
- c. When a recommendation of the Board is to be conveyed to the head of a foreign affairs agency, the Executive Secretary will prepare, for the Chairperson's signature, a memorandum to the head of the agency affected, transmitting the Board's recommendation and seeking the comments of the agency head.
